

JOHN WHITE—CHILDREN OF.

MAY 4, 1860.—Laid upon the table, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. DELANO, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following REPORT.

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of the surviving children of John White, deceased, report:

That inasmuch as it appears that John White, the soldier in virtue of whose services the petitioners now make claim, died on the 7th day of July, 1838, without having himself even made application for a pension, the case is one of a large class showing no special equity in the applicants, and which, under the general rule adopted by the committee, calls for an adverse report; they therefore ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the case.

JOHN WHITE - CHILDREN OF

REPORT

The Committee on Education and Labor, to which was referred the petition of the children of John White, deceased, for a pension, has the honor to report that the petition is one of a large class known as "ghost" petitions, and which under the existing laws should be referred to the committee on Pensions and Invalid Claims for consideration. The committee on Pensions and Invalid Claims has the honor to report that the petition is one of a large class known as "ghost" petitions, and which under the existing laws should be referred to the committee on Pensions and Invalid Claims for consideration. The committee on Pensions and Invalid Claims has the honor to report that the petition is one of a large class known as "ghost" petitions, and which under the existing laws should be referred to the committee on Pensions and Invalid Claims for consideration.